

Thoughts

She thought she would never be freed

She thought the master could not find any more hard working hands like those

Feelings

She felt like the master was crazy. She felt like she was the hardest worker action/action

She read the book titles	She didn't tell him where he was
--------------------------	----------------------------------

She rushed to the freezer	She wanted to fill the two men
---------------------------	--------------------------------