

Examination of Pompey a negre man belonging to Mr. Bryan Denmark Vesey has often spoken to me about the insurrection and endeavoured to persuade me to join them, he enquired of me if my master had not arms in his house and tried to persuade me to get them for him - the blacks stood in great fear of him, and so much so, that always endeavoured to avoid him.

Examination of Edwin a negre man belonging to Mr. Paul Charles belongs to Judge Drayton - he told me that Monday Gell and Denmark Vesey knew about the insurrection of the blacks - he said that William Paul in consequence of his having given testimony would run a great risk of his life, if he went out - I heard every body, even the women say when several were apprehended that they wondered that Monday Gell and Denmark Vesey were not taken.

Examination of Frank a negre man belonging to Mr. Ferguson The first time I spoke with Monday Gell 'twas one night at Vesey's house, where I heard Vesey tell Monday, he must send some one round into the country to bring the people down - Monday replied he had directed Sack to go up, and told him to tell the people to come down and join in the fight against the Whites, and to ascertain and inform him how many people he could get to agree - A few days after I met Vesey, Monday and Sack in the street under Mr. Duncans trees at night, where Sack stated, that he had been in the country round by Goose Creek and Dorchester and that he had spoken to 6000 persons who had agreed to join - Mr. Vesey the first time I spoke to Monday, he was going away early, and Vesey asked him to stay; when Monday said he expected that night a meeting at his house to fix upon and mature the plan &c and he could not stay. Afterwards conversed with Monday in his shop where he asked me if I had heard that Bennetts and Poyas' people were taken up, that 'twas a great pity - he said he had joined in the business - I told him to take care that he was not taken up - Whenever I talked with Vesey, he always spoke of Monday.

long his principal and active man in this business - I heard Jack say, he would pay no more wages, he was too busy in seeing about this insurrection, besides what would the Whites want with wages - they would soon be no more - Monday Gill said to Vesey, that if Jack had so many men, they had better wait no longer, but begin the business at once, and others would join

Mr. James Ferguson who was present at Frank's examination stated to the Court that the testimony of Frank was in substance what he had before told him

Examination of Pharo - belonging to Mr. Thompson
One evening I overheard two men in the street say that Charles Berry and Denmark Vesey were two principal men - Perault belonging to Mr. Stockels said to me last Tuesday that the black people were not worth any thing, but that there was a French Band, which if they could get only 100 men to join with them would attack the work house and take their friends out - I once went to Monday Gills, who had told me he wanted to see me - this was before Mr. Pauls' William was taken up, I then met Charles Drayton and Mr. Ferguson's Frank frequent's Mr. Vesey's house - Monday said he wanted to say something particular to me, and Charles winked at him, when Monday stopped short - Charles asked me on Friday 14th June in the streets to lend him a horse next Sunday evening - I said I could not

Examination of Patrick belonging to Miss Patten
I know Charles Drayton - about 5th months ago he met me in the street, when he stopped me, and asked me to join with him - I asked him in what - he said he want to make up a Company - I said what for, he said for some respectable brown men coming here from abroad - I said I did not want death to take one yet - and I quit him

Examination of V* belonging to Colonel George W. Cross
Peter Poyas first spoke to me and asked me to join, I asked him to join what the Church - he said no, have you not heard that the Whites are going to try to take the Country from the Whites - I asked him if he thought he had force enough to do it - he said yes plenty.
