The State of South Carolina.

At a Convention of the People of the State of South Carolina, began and held at Columbia on the Twentieth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and thence continued by adjournment to Charleston, and thence by several adjournments to the Twentieth day of December in the same year.

The Ordinance to dissolve the Union between the State of South Carolina and other States united with her under the compact entitled

At the time of the State of South Carolina, a Convention assembled to declare and ordain, and it is hereby declared and ordained, That the Ordinance adopted by us in Convention, on the twenty-third day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, whereby the Constitution of the United States of America was ratified, and also all acts and parts of acts of the General Assembly of this State, ratifying amendments of the said Constitution, are hereby repealed, and that the union now subsisting between South Carolina and other States, under the name of the United States of America, is hereby dissolved.

Done at Charleston, the twentieth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

D. J. Jamison
Delegate from Barnwell

President of the Convention.