

Teaching American History in South Carolina : Lesson Plan : Materials

Lesson Rubric for Wake Up King George! Total Points: 15
Category	Rating Scale
	Unacceptable 0	Needs Work 1	Good 2	Excellent 3
Letter to King George identifies the developments leading up to the American Revolution.
Speech to parliament identifies the developments leading up to the American Revolution.
Student paragraph describes how American citizens can participate in their government to influence the decisions and actions of that government
Students formulate positions on issues, and debate them in class. Students consider multiple perspectives in debate.
Students communicate in written and oral forms using appropriate standards.
To Grade: Check the appropriate box for each category. Add scores from each category. High score is 15.				Total Score
Teacher Comments 				