

U.S. Foreign Policy Is Like a ...

Step One

Write one metaphor on the top left of the poster paper.

Write the other metaphor on the top right of the poster paper.

From the perspective of the U.S.s U.S. foreign policy towards _____(name of a territory) was like _____(name of your metaphor.)

Step Two

From the perspective of the _____(name of territory), U.S. foreign policy was like _____(name of your metaphor.)

Step Three

Create an image for each metaphor and place it beneath the corresponding metaphor.

Below your image, write the word because followed by a list of the three most important characteristics that make your metaphor work. Using three different verbs, explain why your metaphor provides an accurate picture of U.S. foreign policy.

From the perspective of a student, school is like a factory...

(drawing)

because

1. work is overseen by a boss,
2. "workers" feel lost,
3. work is boring and repetitive.

From the perspective of a teacher, school is like a nurturing extended family...

(drawing)

because

1. everyone helps each other,
2. developing individuals is key,
3. relationships are essential.