

Memories of a Mill Village

For this assignment you are to pretend you are a mill worker who lives in a mill village. You may be a child or an adult. You will write a description of your life. You should explain what your job is, how much you get paid, problems you might have at work, and what you or your family does after work. You need to write about 2-3 paragraphs. Be creative!

* Write your description on notebook paper, not this sheet.
