

2-26-10

Dear Dr. Brown,

I love learning about segregation and what was happening during that time. I love how you were so brave when you told that man to come walk with you. I also admire the way you did not stop till he walked with you. The way you make words that would sound boring in a history book sound exciting is spectacular in so many ways.

Love,