Walhalla, 80 years Later

Hello, this is me 80 years old.
It looks alot different than it did when we got here. The Great Depression and the CCC aka Civilian Conservation Cor is still going on! Any way, the streets are fabulous! The schools are awesome!
The houses and buildings are nice!
The people are finally getting jobs in this town. I love Walhalla!
Do you?

Today I saw a school where New Berry college was. And on my way there I saw Country Junction road. There was a person about eight feet tall. There was a real big house on Main Street and it was about thirty feet high. And saw the Civil Conservation Corp. You had to have no job, not married, and be fit. It was during one of the hardest times and it was called the great depression.
